

ATTORNEY TREVOR C. LIPPMAN SELECTED AS PARTICIPANT IN THE G. LANE WARE LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

We are pleased to announce that Trevor C. Lippman was selected to participate in the inaugural class of the G. Lane Ware Leadership Academy. Trevor was 1 of 23 attorneys chosen to participate in this program.

The Wisconsin State Bar's Development Committee recently developed the G. Lane Ware Leadership Academy as an inclusive leadership development training program. The committee's objectives in creating this program are to empower participants with the skills, strategies, and resources to become effective leaders in all walks of life.

The G. Lane Ware Leadership Academy is a multi-session training program designed to help lawyers enhance their leadership skills, to build professional networks, to inspire involvement, and to foster professional development. The inaugural class will begin the program this November and end in the spring of 2017.

This is a great opportunity for Trevor to enhance his practice and enrich his career, and he is excited to be a participant.
