

CARL BUESING ELECTED TREASURER OF THE WISCONSIN ASSOCIATION OF COUNTY CORPORATION COUNSEL

Sheboygan, Wisconsin (October 9, 2007) – Carl K. Buesing, a municipal and litigation attorney with the Sheboygan office of O'Neil Cannon, was recently elected Treasurer of the Wisconsin Association of County Corporation Counsel at the group's Fall meeting in Wisconsin Dells.

The Wisconsin Association of County Corporation Counsel is a specialized bar association comprised of attorneys who represent Wisconsin counties and county boards. Under a unique arrangement with Sheboygan County, the O'Neil law firm handles all civil matters for the county, from shoreland zoning prosecutions to airport hangar lease drafting to open meeting advice. Carl Buesing has been assigned by the firm and Sheboygan County as the lead attorney for these matters and has acted as the designated Sheboygan County Corporation Counsel since 2001.

Carl has had an eclectic legal practice starting out as the district attorney of a small northern Wisconsin county where he prosecuted three homicides in his first year of office. From that early experience, he has built a litigation practice involving subjects as varied as will contests to construction contract disputes.

O'Neil Cannon is a full-service legal practice focusing on business law, estate planning, and major complex litigation with offices in Milwaukee, Port Washington, and Sheboygan. The firm was established in 1973 and is now listed as one of the Milwaukee-area's largest law firms.
